

Scenarios

Nominating Committee Scenario # 1: A member of the Nominating Committee has offered the nomination to some of her friends before the committee has even met. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What could have been done to prevent this situation from occurring?2. How should the Nominating Committee Chairman or President resolve this situation?	Nominating Committee Scenario # 2: The Nominating Committee met and made their decisions for nominees but there was not a quorum present at the meeting. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What could have been done to prevent this situation from occurring?2. How should the President resolve this situation?
Election Meeting Scenario # 1: The unit election meeting is June 1 and several people are interested in voting for their friends but they are not members. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What could have been done to prevent this situation from occurring?2. How should the President resolve this situation?	Election Meeting Scenario # 2: At the unit election meeting, a unit member is nominated from the floor but is not present to accept the nomination. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What could have been done to prevent this situation from occurring?2. How should the President resolve this situation?