Need to Write a New Resolution?
Step #1: IDENTIFY YOUR ISSUE  . Something that bothers or energizes you
Something that needs to be done     Need to create new or change existing law, regulation or policy
Check: What you want done agrees with PTA mission and policies Position is not already in "Where We Stand"  Output  Description:
Proposed action has statewide application or broader relevance  YOU HAVE DECIDED A RESOLUTION IS NECESSARY
AND YOU ARE READY

Writing a Resolution

Step # 2: RESEARCH THE ISSUE

- . Set up schedule: allow enough time
- . Check existing laws and regulations
- . Use a variety of resources
- . Research thoroughly
- . Keep a record of research and sources
- Review/check information collected ...and if you still think action is necessary,

YOU ARE READY TO WRITE YOUR RESOLUTION!

Writing a Resolution (cont'd)

Step #3: DRAFT YOUR TEXT

- Clearly set forth what you want done and by whom
- Decide what specific actions PTA should take to address issue
- Each ACTION statement becomes a RESOLVED CLAUSE
- Use a logical sequence of statements to explain rationale (reasons) for your resolved clauses
- List reasons from general to specific
- Each reason needs three (3) pieces of evidence to support from three (3) different sources that must be current (less than six years old)
- RATIONALE = WHY = WHEREAS CLAUSES
